

Train and volunteer with WIRE

- Passionate about supporting and empowering women?
- At least 21, open minded with great communication skills?
- Available to volunteer during business hours?
- Interested in developing your knowledge about a range of issues affecting women today?

WIRE runs a highly respected nationally recognised training program for our telephone support service volunteers three times a year in February, May and September.

Next training session starts on 6th October 2010.

The training involves a commitment of one full day per week over eight weeks plus a number of extra activities. We are looking for people who can commit to one four-hour shift during business hours in the WIRE phone room for at least one year after training.

For details and to register to attend an orientation session on 1st or 2nd September phone 1300 134 130.
