

FREE

Computer Classes for Women

Are computers and the internet a complete mystery to you?

WIRE provides free, basic computer and internet lessons for women of all ages. With only four women in a class, our volunteer computer tutor can go at your pace and focus on your individual interests and needs.

We can cover the absolute basics, including how to drive a mouse, set up an email account and create and save documents.

Each course runs for four weeks with a two-hour class per week. You can choose to come on a Tuesday or a Thursday.

TIME: 11am – 1pm

DAYS: Tuesdays or Thursdays

VENUE: Women's Information Centre

Ground level, 210 Lonsdale Street Melbourne

BOOKINGS: Drop in or call 9921 0878

For support, information and referrals call 1300 134 130 or visit www.wire.org.au.